Stories from the Path

Hear from travelers who have journeyed with us.

★★★★★

"The monastery circuit was transformative. Our guide Tashi was incredibly knowledgeable and shared his culture with such warmth and respect. It felt less like a tour and more like an initiation."

Sarah Jenkins

UK

★★★★★

"Impeccable organization from start to finish. The Annapurna trek was challenging, but the constant support and care from the team made it the achievement of a lifetime. Highly recommend!"

David Chen

★★★★★

"Visiting Lumbini with Explore Nepal was deeply moving. The small group size allowed for quiet reflection, and the added meditation sessions in the evenings were perfectly arranged."

Frequently Asked Questions

Answers to help you prepare for a mindful and culturally respectful journey.

How should I dress when visiting monasteries?

Modest dress is strictly required. Shoulders and knees must be covered for both men and women. We recommend loose, comfortable clothing. Removing shoes before entering shrines is mandatory.

Do I need prior trekking experience?

What is the best time of year to visit?

How do you handle dietary restrictions?

Is altitude sickness a concern?

Cultural Respect Guidance

- Always walk clockwise around stupas and prayer wheels.
- Ask permission before photographing local people or monks.
- Do not point the soles of your feet at shrines or people.
- Use both hands when giving or receiving items.
